GATEWAY INTO GAMES

An exciting FREE event for anyone interested in a career in the video games sector!

Saturday 13 May, 9.30am to 4.30pm
Royal Spa Centre, Leamington Spa

- » Meet representatives from the Silicon Spa cluster of studios with Lab42, Lively – a Keyword Studio, SEGA HARDlight, Sumo Leamington, Third Kind Games and Ubisoft Leamington all taking part.
- » Find out why there's a career for everyone in video games from artists and UX to operators and coders and how the sector is committed to inclusion and diversity across its workforce.
- » Hear from people starting out in the industry and the different pathways they took to get there.
- » Discover what's changing in the world of game development, the impact of AI and what needs to happen to address the current and future skills shortages.
- » Learn more about the growth of the 'Silicon' Spa and Leamington's growing reputation as a hotbed of talent within the games industry as one of the largest clusters of video games businesses in the UK.
- » Studios will also be offering CV & Portfolio reviews and Ask us anything question sessions!
